

Performance Information

Recitals and Performances: The annual Faith in Motion praise concert is a free- to- public performance held in March. All proceeds fund the SSOD outreach project at the Boys & Girls Club of Bulloch County.

The Nutcracker and annual Spring recital are ticketed events. Fees go towards costs associated with performance. We are proud of our performance quality and strive to maintain excellence.

All performances are at the Georgia Southern University Performing Art Center.

Specific information on dates and tickets can be found at the SSOD website:

The Leaps of Faith Mission

Statesboro School of Dance provides exemplary dance training for children and adults. The studio attracts students from Bulloch and surrounding counties. The school is recognized as a leader in classical dance education for all ages and levels in Southeast Georgia.

The goal of Leaps of Faith is to provide special needs children with quality ballet instruction and foster a love for dance. In addition, this class addresses skills with which many children with special needs often have difficulty, including balance, bilateral coordination and integration, strength, problem solving, and social skills.

This program has provided adaptive dance classes to children with a variety of diagnoses, including Down Syndrome, autism, cerebral palsy, developmental delay, and more.

Teaching Faculty

Shay Morgan began her ballet training at age 3, following the Royal Academy of Dancing Syllabus. She has studied with world-renowned teachers. Mrs. Morgan holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from Georgia Southern University. She served as a faculty member and soloist with Ballet South/ Columbia City Ballet from 1996-2001. Her performance achievements include major roles in The Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty, Coppelia, Les Sylphides, Cinderella, Hansel & Gretel, and Dracula.

Mrs. Morgan has choreographed numerous original works and taught community outreach and dance enrichment programs. She currently resides in Statesboro, GA with her husband, Clint, and two sons, Rand and Rhett.

Caroline Coker is a dancer from Roswell, GA. She began dancing at the age of 3, and has been dancing with SIDEWAYS Contemporary Dance Company since 2012. She has training in many styles including ballet, tap, jazz, and modern. This is Caroline's first year in Statesboro. She is a junior at Georgia Southern University, studying Psychology and Therapeutic Recreation. Caroline worked with the Foster-Schmidt Academy for Down syndrome in Atlanta for 8 years, where she discovered her passion for working with students of all abilities. She is very excited to continue that passion with Statesboro School of Dance.
